Record of requests for your credit history

We make your credit history available to your current and prospective creditors and employers as allowed by law. Experian may list these inquiries for up to two years.

Inquiries shared with others

The section below lists companies that have requested your credit information as a result of an action you took, such as applying for credit or financing or as a result of a collection. The inquiries in this section are shared with companies that receive your credit history.

Examples of inquiries shared with others include:

- a real estate loan
- a home mortgage loan
- an auto loan
- an application for credit

Inquiries shared only with you

You may not have initiated the following inquiries, so you may not recognize each source. We report these requests to you only as a record of activities, and we do not include any of these requests on credit reports to others.

We offer credit information about you to those with a permissible purpose, such as:

- other creditors who want to offer you preapproved credit;
- an employer who wishes to extend an offer of employment;
- a potential investor in assessing the risk of a current obligation;
- Experian Consumer Assistance to process a report for you;
- your current creditors to monitor your accounts (date listed may reflect only the most recent request);
- an end user to complete your mortgage loan application;
- insurance underwriting (auto or home).

These inquiries DO NOT affect your credit score and are not seen by anyone but you (except insurance companies may be able to see other insurance company inquiries).
